Ripley Church, Castle, and Cross. The pretty village of Ripley is situated about four miles from Harrogate. The Church, which was restored in 1862, was founded about 1400, and has several monuments erected to the Ingilby family. The Church, built in the sixteenth century, is a fine edifice. Cromwell stayed there the night before the battle of Marston Moor. The Cross is situated in the main road of the village, and was in ancient days used as the Stocks, for the punishment of refractory persons.
